

A User-Generated Conference

14 September 2011 in Oeiras, Lisbon

PROGRAMME

Part 1 - Morning Session

Plenary Room SALAO NOBRE

8:00-9:00	Registration
9:00-9:15	Introduction to CONCEDE Thomas Kretschmer, ILI-FIM, CONCEDE project coordinator
9:15-9:45	The Good, the Bad, and the Wiki Steve Wheeler, University of Plymouth
9:45-10:00	A short introduction to the conference concept Anne-Christin Tannhäuser, Scierter
10:00-10:30	The CONCEDE Quality Framework for user-generated content in higher education Ulf Ehlers, Baden-Württemberg Cooperative State University
10:30-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:30	User-generated content in education - Applying the CONCEDE Quality framework in practice Interview session with pilot leaders Montse Guitert, Marcelo Maina (Open University of Catalonia) & Dénes Zarka (Budapest University of Technology and Economics), Interviewer: Anne-Christin Tannhäuser, Scierter
	Results and conclusions of pilot experiences process Maria Pérez & Mateo, Marc Romero (Open University of Catalonia)
11:30-11:55	The value of user (student) generated content (in higher education) from the viewpoint of sustainable learning Judit Vidékiné-Reményi, Budapest University of Technology and Economics

Find more information on individual sessions at
our conference wiki

Part 2 - Noon Session 12:00-14:00

Plenary Room SALAO NOBRE

Learning Cafés on practices of UGC in Higher Education: Approaches to Quality. Participants move once around small tables, each session will be held twice. Learning café methodology.

12:00-12:30	Café 1 Using planet of blogs to boost participation, quality and control, and allow co-evaluation Gregorio Robles, Universidad Rey Juan Carlos	Café 2 Evolving b-learning practices - do they increase the quality of online learning? Maria João Loureiro, Universidade de Aveiro	Café 3 User generated content: a new way to mix the role of teacher and student Paolo Tosato, University Ca' Foscari Venice	Café 4 Using YouTube in the Classroom: Issues and Opportunities Nick Pearce, Durham University
	12:30-13:00	Café 1 Reloaded	Café 2 Reloaded	Café 3 Reloaded
13:00-14:00	Lunch Break

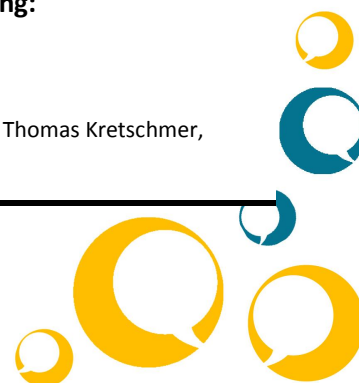

Part 3 - Afternoon Session 14:00-15:30

Room 1.10

Room 1.15

Room 1.29

14:00-15:00	Training teachers for web 2.0: What do they need (to know) to ensure high-quality learning results SVEA project consortium Cristina Gallardo, FUNDECYT Petra Newrly, MFG Baden-Württemberg, Stuttgart	Excellent Virtual Schools and User-Generated Content VISCED Project consortium & International Advisory Committee on virtual schools and colleges Sally Reynolds, ATIT Paul Bacsich, Sero	How can self-evaluation help to enhance user generated content in HE? SEVAQ+ project consortium Deborah Arnold, University of Nancy 2 Marie Bijnens, EFQUEL
	Concepts of Quality in VET, Higher Education and Adult Learning:
15:00-16:30	What do we share, how do we differ?
	Facilitated by Steve Wheeler, University of Plymouth	Facilitated by Marcelo Maina, Open University of Catalonia	Facilitated by Thomas Kretschmer, ILI/FIM

Part 4 – Late Afternoon Session 15:30-16:40

Room 1.10

Room 1.29

Room 1.16

15:30-16:20

How policy needs to change to make high-quality UGC in education a reality?

Do we need a Quality Label for UGC? What elements and criteria would it need to contain?

José Lagarto, Universidade Católica Portuguesa
Workshop

How to provide and ensure efficient enabling structures and services for user-generated content

Ari-Matti Auvinen
Presentation + Discussion round

OPEN Space Slot

Free discussion space for topics that have emerged during the conference day.

This will be decided on the spot.

During the conference day participants can be add suggestions to the conference wiki or "offline" to a flip chart at the venue.

16:20-16:40

Lessons learnt today - Closing words

http://wikieducator.org/WikiEducator:Books/Dialogue_on_Quality_of_User_Generated_Content

[Note: all subscores]

WikiEducator saved book

Contents [hide]

- 1 CONCEDE
 - 1.1 Dialogue on Quality of User-Generated Content in Education
- 2 CONCEDE User-generated Conference 14th September 2011
- 3 Strategies towards Quality
- 4 Discuss policy recommendations
- 5 Recommended and related readings

CONCEDE

Dialogue on Quality of User-Generated Content in Education

WikiEducator:Current events

CONCEDE User-generated Conference 14th September 2011

Please see our CONCEDE website and especially the page For contributors.

Open Contributions

The CONCEDE team was looking for interested educational practitioners and researchers to contribute to our conference and publish freely on our wiki. See the following 3 themes

- Practical Experiences with UGC in Teaching and Learning

Planning the programme

- The CONCEDE Conference Programme has been planned with all speakers and contributors. Have a look at our sessions and add your thoughts live during the conference.
- Here is listed who else will contribute to the organisation or publicity of the conference in accordance to the form below.

Linked from our website: www.concede.cc

Our Conference WIKI

Full session descriptions can be found online

twitter

Hashtag #concede11

